June Dinner Meeting at Seven Troughs Huge Success

Seven Troughs Distillery hosted our June dinner meeting, we had a great turnout and a terrific presentation. The "taste testing" of their latest batch of bourbon was a highlight of the evening. Thanks again to Seven Troughs for hosting, I think we learned how to draw a crowd

Monthly Dinner Meeting July 2016

July 26, 2016 Dinner Meeting

Houston, We Have a Problem!

Project Apollo is perhaps the most successful collaborative project ever undertaken by mankind. It has been overlooked for decades as a model from which we can replicate achieving impossible goals and resolving complex catastrophic problems. Houston, We Have a Problem, is an introduction to The Apollo Business Model™ which defines how we won the space race in seven years and how that model can help businesses achieve their most astronomical goals. The presenter worked at Mission Control in Houston during Project Apollo and has codified his experiences at NASA, his work with more than 700 companies, and his obsession with excellence, documented in his 12 books.
